

IT'S A WHOLE NEW BUSINESS

Registration Deadline: Sept 1st

Investors frustrated with the stock market are looking for asset strategies they can believe in. While the single-family investment game is over, the group investment business presents new opportunities in a new economy.

Gene Trowbridge, CCIM, provides a comprehensive workshop on how to establish real estate investment groups, including:

- Security rules you need to know
- Entity structures you will use
- How to draft offering documents
- Steps to take in creating your group
- Avoiding the mistakes of other sponsors
- Investment analysis presentation

Gene Trowbridge, ESQ,
CCIM

Why syndicate commercial and investment real estate now? Three reasons:

1. There are attractive investment properties available.
2. Loans require larger down payments; with a group, you pool equities to raise larger down payments.
3. Forming an investment group is frequently a way to generate brokerage business.

Each workshop registrant will receive a copy of It's a Whole New Business, by Mr. Trowbridge. The book contains comprehensive samples of two complete private-placement memorandums, one for a specific property and one for a blind pool and a sample Tennant In Common agreement. They are invaluable reference guides.
